

Congratulations – You've Been Accepted to the 2021 World Science Scholars Program

Dear Aman Burman,

Thank you for applying to become a World Science Scholar. After thoroughly evaluating all applications and recommendations, we are pleased to extend to you an invitation to join the 2021 cohort!

Please reply to this email to confirm your plans to participate in the program. You will also receive an email from DocuSign with a link to an online agreement that both you and your parent/guardian will need to sign electronically by Friday, June 18, 2021. Only upon receipt and successful review of the agreement will you be officially declared a World Science Scholar and be sent information about next steps, including orientation sessions and getting started activities planned for this summer.

In the interim, we hope that you will continue developing new math skills, and we invite you to engage in several free activities that will afford you the opportunity to explore new disciplines in which to apply your abilities:

- Stay tuned for information about new original programs from the World Science Festival that will be released in mid-July.
- Watch new video releases on the World Science Festival YouTube channel.
- Subscribe to the World Science Festival newsletter, and follow us on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

Should you have any questions, please email us at scholars@worldsciencefestival.com.

Kind regards,
World Science Scholars team
